

Privacy Policy

This statement explains how the Vita et Futura Foundation stores and uses the personal data you provide in your applications and on our website, as well as your rights regarding this data. We handle your personal data transparently, with security and privacy being our top priorities. This document is intended to provide you with all the important details.

What personal data do we collect from you? When you register, we collect the following personal data to give you proper access to our content:

- email: your personal or work email
- name: your personal name
- field of study: your field of study (only for students)

Why and how do we use your data?

Email: as your username on website to send account management emails (non-marketing) in cases such as:

- registration confirmation
- forgotten password
- password change
- user data download
- user data deletion
- privacy and/or terms and conditions changes
- similar content required for the management of your user account

Name:

- to confirm the identity of healthcare professionals.

Field of study:

- to identify medical students who will become healthcare professionals in the future and will thus be authorized to use professional content that is restricted to this group of people.

When do we collect data?

We collect information from you when you register (in the application or on the website).

How can I access the data you store about me?

We will allow you to access all the information we collect about your user account at any time.

How do we protect your data?

Your personal data is stored in a secure database and is only accessible to a limited number of employees who have special access rights to these systems. They are contractually bound to confidentiality and secrecy, and their access to data is via login and can be monitored.

Data transfer between the application and the server is protected by Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology using certificates issued by a certification authority.

Our web servers are regularly updated with the latest security patches.

Who might we share your personal information with?

We do not share, exchange, trade, or otherwise transfer your personal information.

How to request data deletion? If you would like to request data deletion, you can contact us using the details below.
